Ayer's
Cherry Pectoral

Should be kept constantly at hand, for use in emergencies of the household. Many a mother, startled in the night by the ominous sounds of Croup, finds the little sufferer, with red and swollen face, gasping for air. In such cases Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is invaluable. Mrs. Emma Gedney, 159 West 128 st., New York, writes: "While in the country, last winter, my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with Croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral was tried in small and frequent doses, and, in less than half an hour, the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the Pectoral saved my darling's life." Mrs. Chas. B. Landon, Guilford, Conn., writes: "Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Saved My Life,

and also the life of my little son. As he is troubled with Croup, I dare not be without this remedy in the house." Mrs. J. Gregg, Lowell, Mass., writes: "My children have repeatedly taken Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for Coughs and Croup. It gives immediate relief, followed by cure." Mrs. Mary E. Evans, Scranton, Pa., writes: "I have two little boys, both of whom have been, from infancy, subject to violent attacks of Croup. About six months ago we began using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and it acts like a charm. In a few minutes after the child takes it, he breathes easily and rests well. Every mother ought to know what a blessing I have found in Ayer's Cherry Pectoral." Mrs. Wm. C. Reid, Freehold, N. J., writes: "In our family, Ayer's medicines have been a blessings for many years. In cases of Colds and Coughs, we take

and the inconvenience is soon forgotten."

The Scriptures, both the Old and New Testament speak against the use of intoxicanting drinks as a beverage. The awful curse of God rests upon the drunkard, likewise upon those who deal out strong drink to their fellows. "Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor drink, that putteth the bottle to him and maketh him drunken." "Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise." No person possessing a sound mind cares to be placed with the fool, yet the Scriptures, God's looking-glass, in which men can see themselves, have placed those who become intoxicated by drink alongside the fool. They are "not wise," but foolish, and we might add brutish. They place themselves below the level of the brute. What! can it be possible that man made in the likenness of God will become so degraded as to wallow in the mire? Yes, there he is. Just look at him. God of mercy, he is being lost. Let us rally round the flag of temperance, and try to save the unfortunate from the power of King Alcohol.

There was a time when it was argued by men of science that alcohol possessed food properties. Thank God, that time has passed away. It has been shown very clearly by Dr. Richardson of England, in his "Ten Lectures on Alcohol," that alcohol in no way acts as a food. Moreover, it destroys the thinking faculties, benumbs the brain, and brings its victim to a premature death. Alcohol taken in large or small quantities injures the lining of the stomach. If all the functions of the body perform well their part, then can the bodily, spiritual, and moral faculties work unitedly together and give to all the machinery of the body strength and activity. But if the central power be weakened by improper food and stimulants, then, as a natural consequence, will the strength of the spirit and the body diminish. After the effects of alcohol have subsided and the man begins to be a man, then the joyful feelings of life turn to darkness, sorrow, judgment and death.—James Turner.

The poor sufferer that has been dosing himself with so-called Troches and thereby upset his stomach without curing the troublesome cough, should take our advice and use at once Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup and get well.

Unquenchable fire is eating its way through hundreds of acres of coal in Westmoreland county, Pa., the flames having started some time ago in the shaft of the H. C. Frick Coke Company. By reason of the fire some 800 men are out of work, and the coke company is losing $2,400 a day.

I have used Athlophoros and have given it to my wife and boy with very satisfactory results. In my own case I used it for neuralgia, and it gave me very quick relief from the pain. J. F. W. Rabbe, 256 Main street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

A woman at Montrgue, Mich., traced her husband to a gambling-house, broke open the door and began firing a revolver among the inmates. Her husband wilted and the others ran away. The woman pocketed the money on the gambling-table and then marched her husband home.

The untidy appearance of a grizzly beard should never be allowed. Buckingham's Dye for the Whiskers will change their color to a brown or black, at discretion, and thus keep up your reputation for neatness and good looks.

Two flocks of turkeys met on a railroad track near Salisbury, Mo., and engaged in combat. A train came along and killed twelve which were fighting so busily that they had no time to get out of the way.

It is claimed that Joana Mesquite Defiles, who died recently in Livermore, Cal., was 110 years old. At all events she was she mother of twelve children, and her grandchildren and great-grandchildren numbered 164.

"Words fail to express my gratitude," says Mr. Selby Carter, of Nashville, Tenn., "for the benefits derived from Ayer's Sarsaparilla. My system was filled with scrofula: blotches, ulcers, and mattery sores, all over my body." Mr. Carter was entirely cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, eight months ago and has had no return of the scrofula symptoms.

Mr. M. P. Schrock, 872 W. Lake St., Chicago, was Helpless from Rheumatism. His physicians feared amputation of the leg would be necessary. He tried Athlophoros, and in two days was cured.

A professor in a medical college once said to his class "put your hand in a vice, turn the screw until the pain is all you can bear, and that's rheumatism; turn the screw once more, and that's neuralgia—and gentlemen, the medical profession knows no cure for either." That was before the discovery of ATHLOPHOROS which does and will quickly cure both rheumatism and neuralgia, and many physicians use it regularly—frankly admitting that they can prescribe nothing else so effective.

Many persons have tried so many so-called remedies, without benefit, that they have no faith to try more, but it is worth your while to try Athlophoros. If you have any doubts as to its value write for names of parties in your own State who have been cured by its use.

Ask your druggist for Athlophoros. If you cannot get it of him we will send it express paid on receipt of regular price—$1.00 per bottle. We prefer that you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it do not be persuaded to try something else, but order at once from us as directed,
